President's Column

Did you ever wonder if air rifle competition for junior shooters even exists in Indiana anymore? Well wonder no more. The New Albany HS Naval Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps (NJROTC) recently won the 2018 Secretary of the Navy Precision Rifle National Competition. The team is ranked #1 in the nation out of 550 NJROTC Teams! Not to be outdone by much, in 4th place in the same match was Floyd Central HS, Floyd's Knobs.

Special recognition goes to JROTC shooter Jadelynn Kendall who shoots on the Marion HS Army JROTC Team. Although Jadelynn is not a championship shooter yet, I'm betting that with her determination she will be someday. You see Jadelynn looks just like the rest of us but as they say 'looks can be deceiving' because when she was only 5 years old because of a horrible accident she lost one of her legs. Quoting Jadelynn; "There's been a lot, most of it was relearning everything that I had already leaned to do. That was hard. But once I got the hang of it, it was okay. Accepting the fact that it's not going to come back was hard too, but once I accepted it, I felt a lot better." Now you know why, with an attitude like that, I'm betting that someday she will be a championship shooter. Congratulations and hang in there Jadelynn you can and will do it!

This speaks well of these kids who take the time and put in the effort to work at a sport and develop the skills to end up as high in the ranking as these two schools. I'm sure it would have been much easier "to hang out" after school rather than train. You say "I'd love to be able to shoot every day" and so would the rest of us but unless you have ever shot on a real serious team before you don't realize that very shortly it becomes almost like work. It would be so much easier to just goof around after school instead. In addition to these two teams there are several other middle and high school, 4-H, American Legion, Boy Scout, and club teams also competing; ISRPA has a Postal Match for any and all interested junior shooters. So, there are lots of opportunities for kids to get out and shoot.

Now you understand why ISRPA is so focused on junior shooting activities because without the junior shooting sports the ISRPA has no future. The juniors are our future, they are the ones that have to carry on this association or it will fade into oblivion. Last time I reported that our MidwayUSA Junior Shooting Endowment account was more than $35,000 well now it is just over $58,000. That's after more donations and a generous 2:1 match by Larry and Brenda Potterfield and a 5% dividend, amounting to $1,776, paid to the junior account of ISRPA. This endowment account will provide funds to support junior shooting activities long after you and I are gone.

Don't know if you remember or not but in 2016, Henry Repeating Arms arranged a shoot at the Ben Avery Range in Phoenix, AZ where 1000 Henry Rifles would be fired at the same time. The rifles were Henry Golden Boy Silver Models .22lr caliber and were specially made and serially numbered for this event. Just recently I received a letter from NRA stating that at least some of the rifles had been donated by Henry to NRA who then decided to donate one to each of the State Associations for their use. ISRPA did receive its rifle and it was decided to raffle the rifle for a fund raiser for the association. See flyer elsewhere in this magazine. Once final arrangements are made and tickets printed they will be advertised on the ISRPA web-site and in the ISSN Magazine. There will be only 200 tickets printed and sold at $20 each. Don't be bashful, be sure to get at least one and just remember there is no limit to the number you can purchase!

2018 marks the 50th full year of operation for ISRPA. There are some special enhancements being offered for new memberships. See details elsewhere in this magazine, also special activities are being planned for the Annual Meeting and Awards Banquet see detailed information and date elsewhere as well.

Take care, shoot well, and take at least one young shooter to the range this summer,

ISRPA PRESENTS
HENRY GOLDEN BOY SILVER RIFLE

ISRPA is proud to present a Henry Golden Boy Silver Commemorative Rifle as part of our 50th Anniversary celebration. This rifle was part of the Henry Rifle venture held on November 14, 2016 at the Ben Avery Shooting Facility in Phoenix, AZ. 1,000 freedom-loving Americans joined together to set a firearms World Record, simultaneously firing 1,000 Henry Repeating Arms Golden Boy Silver rifles. Following the event Henry Repeating Arms generously donated the custom engraved rifles to NRA, which is donating one rifle to each State Association to raise funds for programs to uphold the Second Amendment. YOU have an opportunity to own this rifle!

The Henry Golden Boy Silver rifle in .22LR is configured with octagon barrel, American walnut stock, a fully adjustable Marbles semi-buckhorn sight. The gun features a mirror-bright nickered receiver cover, matching barrel band and buttplate. The Henry Golden Boy Silver for the 1,000 Man Shoot comes custom with a 1,000 Man Shoot commemorative logo and Allen case, making it one of a kind or,

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

By Bill Dowden, Legislative Director

With a strong majority of “pro-gun” legislators going into the 2018 session of the Indiana General Assembly, the prospects of favorable legislation looked very good. However, the results were disappointing. As in past sessions, the House of Representatives basically killed any good firearms legislation.

Again this year, Representative Lucas from Seymour introduced a “constitutional carry” bill which was referred to the Public Policy committee – it was not even afforded a hearing, and died in committee.

Senator Jack Sandlin introduced a very reasonable bill which would have allowed a properly licensed worshipper to carry a firearm during a church’s worship service being conducted in or on school property when school is not in session. It passed with overwhelming support in the Senate and sent to a House committee, which so messed up the bill that it never became law.

As the session was entering its final weeks, the tragic Florida school shooting occurred, and the outcry against guns was almost deafening. Unfortunately, such events fit the scenario described by then - Presidential Chief of Staff Emanuel as “... a good crisis...” which should not go to waste. In this case, the adult anti-second amendment leaders shamelessly use the victims and children to support the media generated hysteria against private ownership of firearms. Responsible gun owners, such as we have here in Indiana, find the heinous actions of a few reprehensible and certainly share the grief of the victims and their families.

In the face of misinformed (or malicious) attacks on the objects called “guns,” every Hoosier who lawfully owns a shotgun, a pistol, or a rifle, should be defending his/her inherent right to keep and bear arms. They should also be actively determining if a particular officeholder or candidate who claims to support the 2nd Amendment will actually, and unequivocally, publicly support that constitutionally protected right.

To get complete information on candidates in this year’s primary and general elections go to the Secretary of State’s website: sos.in.gov.

ISRPA Annual Meeting and Awards Banquet

Saturday, November 3

THE RIVIERA CLUB

We are excited to announce that the Riviera Club in Indianapolis will be the venue for the ISRPA 50th Anniversary Annual Meeting and Awards Banquet! Established in 1933, The Riviera Club offers an outstanding venue centrally located and easy to access in Indianapolis, with plenty of off street parking, outstanding food options prepared by the Executive Chef and Catering Staff, and a cash bar. There will be a Board and Members meeting in the afternoon, followed by the Awards Banquet in the evening. Look for more details at any of the ISRPA events and State Championships during the season, on the website and in the ISSN magazine as the season unfolds. If you’ve never been to an Annual Awards banquet, this is the year to attend! If you’ve been before, expect a great time!

Women's Corner

By Linda Levan, V-P Women of the ISRPA

According to the NRA, there are 5 basic fundamentals of pistol shooting: Stance, Grip, Aim, Trigger Control, and Follow Through. In an ideal world, you would have complete control over each of these actions. But the human body grows, thrives, and ages. It is always in motion. Even in a resting state, your body generates enough wattage to run a bright, old-fashioned light bulb, around 60-100 watts!

There is no single prime age for the human body, the “twenty-something” human is a body that may, in many ways, never be better in terms of physical capability. And most Nobel Prize discoveries are made before 40.

the eye undergoes with the passage of time include presbyopia, cataracts, floaters, age-related macular degeneration (ARMD), systemic disease, and medication side effects. Increased blur, decreased contrast sensitivity, pupil size, and reaction times all add difficulties to the task of safe and accurate shooting.

What can you do? Try vision therapy exercises specific to reaction speed, hand-eye coordination, and peripheral awareness. Wear tinted lenses. Use magnification (scopes) to achieve a high level of success despite a reduction in vision. Undergo cataract surgery to clear vision, or try optical corrections to restore clarity of the front sight. Many who are considered blind are still able to enjoy the sport of shooting. One approach has been the use of auditory cues in the form of tones played through a headphone; as the shooter aims, the tone changes as the center of the target is “sighted.”

Most importantly, practice. Take advantage of both dry fire and range time. Your vision may change and your techniques may have to be modified, but your accuracy should remain on target!

Effects of Age-related Eye Changes on Sight Picture

But what about those of us who are past our 40s? Experience and wisdom make up for a lot of physical deteriorations, allowing mental skills such as arithmetic, comprehension and social reasoning to keep improving well into middle age.

But what about a physical attribute which is critical to accurate shooting, like good vision?

The natural aging and eye-deterioration process can affect either or both short-range and/or long-range aiming and sighting and our other shooting activities. Some of the changes

2018 INDIANA STATE JUNIOR RIFLE CHAMPIONSHIPS A Record Breaking Event The X Count, Fort Wayne March 2, 3, 4, 10, 11, 17, & 18

By Diane Rice, Director-NE

This year's match was like no other. First, there was a new venue. By coaches consensus the match was moved to The X Count in Fort Wayne where athletes had the opportunity to compete on the Megalink electronic targets. Spectators from around the country were able to watch their perspective athletes compete online. Due to the popularity of the new venue the previous attendance record of 214 was shattered as 267 athletes converged on Fort Wayne. Athletes from 16 different programs from three states traveled hundreds of miles to compete. Jerry Thomas Director-SE and the Hoosier Hills team made their inaugural visit to the championship match. Nine records were broken including all four team records and multiple individual records. Big changes were made in International Air to align the match more closely to the Olympic and Collegiate Matches including changing teams from three to four-man teams and the change from forty to sixty shots. Team and aggregate individual results are listed below. For a complete listing of results including position medals visit the Orion Results website at <http://www.orionresults.com/bishopdwenger>.

Michigan City Youth Shooting Camp

Michigan City Rifle Club will be hosting their 6th Annual Youth Shooting Camp from June 18-22. The Camp is led by NRA Certified Instructors. The campers will learn Basic Rifle, Pistol, and Shotgun safety and skills. All firearms and ammunition are provided for the campers and made possible from grant from FNRA. Michigan City Rifle Club provides all meals for the campers and workers. Again, we will have involvement from local police departments with K9 demonstrations and displays of police equipment. The camp is open to all students in 5th grade thru senior high school. For information, contact Pete Swenson 630-670-6455 or swenson600@comcast.net

RIMFIRE CHALLENGE

Michigan City Rifle Club continues to host rimfire challenge shoots the 2nd Saturday of each month. This is very fast growing sport! Anyone with a .22 semi-auto rifle and pistol are welcome to compete – provided that they have five (5) magazines for each platform. The events have grown steadily to more than 30 competitors each month. Commencing in April, the matches will be moved outdoors. This is a fun and fast paced sport designed for novice and advanced shooters. This is a true family event! We are drawing shooters from IN, IL, OH, IA, and WI

The July Shoot is sanctioned by the newly formed Rimfire Challenge Shooting Association (RCSA). We are anticipating 60 competitors. We have a number of prizes donated by the likes of RUGER, TANDEMKROSS, VOLQUARTSEN, STEEL PAINT, and MIDWAY USA. For additional information, contact: Pete Swenson 630-670-6455 or swenson600@comcast.net
