President's Column

I hope all are safe & healthy during this pandemic and that “stay in place” will be a great opportunity for all to spend quality time with your family, organize the office & workshop, clean your firearms, and catch up on the “honey do’s”.

The pandemic has been an insanely busy time for me helping clients weather the storm and volunteering with disaster efforts for our State and Country. I finally made time, in addition to writing this letter ;), to have some great experiences with the family as we created some backyard activities (in addition to a lot of Euchre and BBQ'ing!). We set up an urban archery range, built a pellet gun trap and tomahawk throwing targets...keeping those skills honed!

Although on “lock down”, we must all be vigilant and maintain situational awareness. During this time of crisis, we must safeguard our freedoms and Constitutional Rights. In Indiana, we are blessed to have a Governor who recognized access to firearms and ammunition as an essential service that must be maintained during these trying times. Attorney General Curtis Hill issued an opinion resulting from a request from Senators Jim Tomes, Jim Buck, and Aaron Freeman that made it crystal clear that a city, county, or other political subdivision may not restrict the sale of firearms during an emergency declaration.

ISRPA is still moving full steam ahead; we conducted our Spring Board Meeting via Zoom to keep the ball rolling. Although many matches and competitions have been cancelled, ISRPA is working on the National Matches and, alternatively, events to bring our shooting community back together once the pandemic measures have subsided. At the board meeting, we heard from Guy Relford, the “Gun Guy” on WIBC, and his efforts with the 2A Project to beef up efforts to protect our 2A rights and avoid another Virginia travesty. Also presenting were an amazing team from the NRA. Cole McCullough, who heads up the NRA’s Competition & Training Division (and Peacemaker Range Fame), briefed us on the progress of the National Matches at Camp Atterbury and the Development of a National Marksmanship Program and interactive museum. Josh Toennessen, Friends of NRA, discussed the ramifications of the pandemic upon fundraising and the FNRA Banquets and ideas for a fast recovery to continue the efforts to promote youth shooting sports. Norma Lawrence, NRA Advancement discussed how the NRA organizational silos are working together and a brief of 160 different NRA programs.

During the recent board meeting, ISRPA created several new committees to use the time given us to build and prepare for the growth and strength of our organization. These committees will also give the Association the ability to engage members and develop our leadership for the future. If you have any interest in volunteering and playing a part in the amazing future of shooting sports that lies ahead, contact us through the ISRPA website at: <https://isrpa.org/contact-us/> (be sure to check out the great new website). These are several of the new committees where you can participate: Membership, Development, Promotion & Engagement, Communication, Legislative and National Matches.

ISRPA is also deeply committed to the Indiana Youth Shooting Sports Foundation. Through the generosity (incredibly understated) of Larry & Brenda Potterfield and the Midway Foundation, IYSSF has been working hand in hand with ISRPA to build youth shooting sports in the State. Indiana achieved the highest participation rate in the country last year and is leading the charge to expand even further in 2020. A picture of some of the IYSSF Board of Directors can be seen on page 16.

Additionally, ISRPA was named NRA Outstanding State Association of the Year with Indiana continually ranking #1 in fundraising for FNRA and NRA-ILA. We are excited by our progress and committed to continued expansion.

God bless the USA, our Second Amendment community and please pray for all of our health care workers on the front line.

Charlie Hiltunen,
President, ISRPA

Across the Course High Power 2020 By Sue Mogle, Exec-VP

It's still far enough out that there is hope that things will begin returning to some degree of normalcy in time for the CMP SAFS/Marksmanship 101 May 29 to kick off the Governor's Cup Match and EIC "Leg" Match May 30-31 at Camp Atterbury. However, as of April 4 Camp Atterbury is still closed to non-essential training, and CMP activities are cancelled until further notice. Watch the website and your email for updates.

ISRPA high power has tickets for the 2020 Indiana Youth Shooting Sports raffle available now! All proceeds benefit Indiana Junior Shooting Teams directly. Teams selling tickets split the proceeds with IYSSF: the portion sent back to IYSSF is matched by IYSSF for that team's MidwayUSA Foundation account, providing support for the teams now and into the future. Contact vp@isrpa.org for more information!

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

By Bill Dowden, Legislative Director

The 2020 session of the General Assembly looked as if it would be favorable to Hoosier gun owners, but the best that can be said is that no legislation passed which infringed upon the right to keep and bear arms in Indiana. Several good gun bills were introduced and passed by the Senate; however, when they were sent to the House for action, leaders there let them die.

The recent request by one county in Indiana to gun stores to close their doors during the state's public health policy due to the COVID outbreak is a reminder of the foresight and hard work of Senator Jim Toms in 2011 to pass Senate Bill 292 (state preemption) which prohibits local units of government infringement on a right protected by both the U. S. Constitution and the Indiana Constitution. Prior to that, there were hundreds of local ordinances and regulations across the state that had no effect on crime, but were nuisance rules which carried no criminal penalties. Consequently, under state law, there is now uniformity in firearms regulation throughout the state.

When Senators James Buck, Aaron Freeman, and Jim Toms learned of the above county's action, they immediately requested an advisory opinion of Indiana Attorney General Curtis Hill. In support of the state law Attorney General Hill said, "Year after year Indiana's lawmakers have recognized the paramount importance of Hoosiers' right to bear arms. We're talking about a liberty so cherished as to be enshrined in the Second Amendment of the U. S. Constitution."

Even though the dates and methods of elections this year are uncertain at this time, there are 25 Senate seats and 100 House seats up for election in Indiana. For an unknown period of time candidates will not be having rallies and public speaking events, and most voters will be "sheltering" during this time; but gun owners should be contacting their candidates by telephone, texting, or e-mail to make sure where they stand on specific issues, such as universal background checks, stand your ground, and weakening the state preemption.

The threat of losing the inherent right as free Americans to keep and bear arms, as well as the threat to religious freedom, the right to life, the attack on traditional values, etc., should ensure that every ISRPA member and every NRA member supports candidates for the Indiana General Assembly, the U. S. Congress, and the President of the United States who will protect those rights of a free people.

To be as fully informed as possible about the offices to be voted on and the candidates for the various local and state offices, go to the Secretary of State's website www.sos.in.gov/elections. To learn about the activities and incumbent members go to www.iga.in.gov.

Women's Corner

By Dawn Hillyer, V-P Women of the ISRPA

Hope everyone is staying safe, healthy and making the most of their time in quarantine! Just think, this time last year, we were getting ready for the NRA Convention and Fashion & Firearms in Indianapolis. What a difference a year makes!

Although the conventions, Ladies day at Range, along with everything else has been canceled, there are lots of ways we (specifically ladies) can still be involved and support the 2nd Amendment. The DC Project is an educational and nonpartisan group of 50 women (one from each state) that meet legislators, establish relationships with them and their offices/staff, and give voice to female gun owners. This year, DCP is starting state level initiatives. Beth Walker (@3gunbeth) is Indiana's DCP Representative. If you don't know Beth – you should...this girl is a dynamo! She is an 18 year old, 3 Gunner, HS senior, advocate for 2A rights, Indiana Delegate for the DC Project, Indiana Chairwoman for emPOWERed and Turning Point USA Partner. She is working to bring back our nation's core values.

The DC Project state level efforts will focus on one trip to the State Capitol each year; helping get the #gunvote out, preventing disasters like VA; being a presence at local and state hearings on current or proposed gun legislation as well as local events/festivals.

"For many years, anti-gun groups have been showing up and controlling the narrative. We want to be a counter to those groups. If there is a red shirt (Mom's Demand Action), we would like to see a teal shirt (DCP). Keep your eyes and ears open for opportunities!" – Beth Walker. We'd love to see our ladies help support Beth and the DC Project!

Hopefully soon thing will be back to the "new normal" whatever that looks like.

We'll get back to planning Ladies Day at the Range, training, and all of our other fun event. In the meantime, please stay in, stay safe and take care!

All American Outdoor Expo

Ambassadors to the Shooting Sports
By Diane Rice, Director NE

For the last decade the show promoters for the All-American Outdoor Expo (formerly the Outdoor Sports, Lake, and Cabin Show) have invited The X Count to have an indoor portable air rifle range as a part of the show. The event takes place each January at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum in Fort Wayne.

The range allows attendees of the show to experience air rifle shooting in a supported prone position. Participants range from children, requiring significant assistance and happy to just get a hole in the paper, to adults settling a bet or a rivalry.

The three-day event brings in more than 10,000 visitors each year allowing for a spectacular opportunity to provide positive publicity and education for the shooting sports. In addition to the range, the show features the sale of boats and RV's, an archery range, zip line, fishing & hunting demonstrations and outfitters, and much, much, more.

Show promoter, Dave Marquart, describes the relationship between the show and the shooting sports: "Every outdoor sport show wants to have all anchor outdoor sports represented. Even better, is if that sport can be a hands on and educational. The perfect solution for the All American Outdoor Expo for the last decade is The X Count. As one of the few sport shows that actually offer live indoor rifle shooting, we are grateful for their partnership. The level of education, tips, tricks, personal touch and just plain over the top care and enthusiasm for the rifle shooting sport is unsurpassed. It's more than the top-notch Olympic level instructors; it's the entire team...actually youth shooters right there side by side teaching kids the art of safe air rifle shooting. Nothing is better than kids teaching kids to create lifelong fans. Did our show help them get the needed exposure to grow and secure needed tools & facilities...sure...all well-deserved as The X Count is a class act, but The X Count family also helped our show be what it is today... true partners."

ISRPA 2020 Lorenzen Junior Rifle State Championship

COVID Implications

By Diane Rice, Director NE

Panoramic view of the X-Count firing line

This year's ISRPA Lorenzen Junior Rifle State Championship match was abuzz with activity. Early indicators suggested a shattering of the previous state attendance record. In 2018 that record was broken with 267 junior athletes participating. This year, more than 310 junior athletes had registered. This was more than a 15% increase over the 2018 record. The growth was due to the increasing popularity of the match, the growth of the sport in the state, and the generous offer of Indiana Youth Shooting Sport Foundation to contribute the amount of the match fees to the existing MidwayUSA Foundation trust of each team.

The first weekend, March 6-8, featured full lanes. There was talk of the pandemic, but no one realized what was to happen next. Each week the match was closely monitored to be certain that CDC guidelines were met but as schools closed and restrictions were put in place, the numbers declined. The final weekend featured only a dozen athletes, shooting with distance between them and hospital grade Virex being used to wipe down monitors, tables, chairs, door handles, bathrooms, etc., between the two relays. The match is currently in a state of limbo. We have extended the date to shoot till the second week in May. If previously registered programs are able to travel by that time, the teams will be afforded the opportunity to shoot. If not, the match will be considered closed with the current competitors. Participants should call The X Count @ 260-444-5520 or email vp@thexcount.com with updates or questions.

American Heritage Girls Day at the Range

2020 Theme – GI Jane
By Diane Rice, Director NE

The scene is a familiar one each February. The American Heritage Girls, fifty plus, ages 5-18, converge upon The X Count for a day of rifle training, safety, history, maintenance, and sport.

Each year, Eddie Eagle makes a special guest appearance. The participants often joined by family members rotate through stations to earn their shooting sports badge. The required stations included the history of guns in America, Eddie Eagle, gun safety, range commands, women and firearms, types and parts of guns, shooting training, and competition.

The very popular supplemental station is an escape room with a parallel of the theme of the event. This year's theme, GI Jane, had participants trapped in Radar O'Reilly's office with a desperate need to get out and warn the surgeons of "incoming wounded". No one ever escapes without a little assistance from the puzzle master. One thing is for certain, the girls and their families escape the day with a smile on their face, their shooting sports badge, a themed t-shirt, and a desire to shoot a rifle again very soon.

ISRPA Vice President's Report

By Sue Mogle, Exec-VP

ISRPA Officers, Directors and Discipline Vice Presidents met on March 28. This was our first “virtual meeting”, due to the current situation. During this time of lockdown and crisis is a great time for us to build our resources together. The ISRPA Officers and Directors have a lot of exciting things going on, and we need your help.

A short summary of Friends of NRA from Josh Toennessen: All banquets that were supposed to happen in March and April have been postponed. New dates are being booked or already have been booked for these events. No events are canceled at this time and all new information will be on our Facebook page Indiana Friends of NRA or our website www.friendsofnra.org Look for the latest raffle information on the website!

Contact jtoennessen@nrahq.org with questions.

ISRPA is pleased to partner with The 2A Project <https://the2aproject.com> with our own “Gun Guy” Guy Relford at the helm. The 2A Project is founded on one simple principle: our right of self-defense, as bestowed by God and as protected against government infringement by the Second Amendment of the United States Constitution and Article 1, Section 32 of the Indiana Constitution, is not up for negotiation or compromise. We oppose any limitation or restriction placed on law-abiding citizens to protect themselves, their families and their fellow citizens with the tools of their choosing.

The ISRPA website has a new look for Spring. www.isrpa.org. The new design offers better organization. Static info will remain in the header boxes where it will be accessible. Whether it's training opportunities, matches, legislative resources and more, you can easily find what you're looking for. At the same time, News and Upcoming Events is now a continuous feed that can be updated on the home screen and scrolled through in chronological order.

ISRPA is expanding our membership options. ISRPA is extending a membership offer to juniors through 2020. All juniors attending a State Championship match will receive an invitation for a year junior membership including electronic magazine. If you are a trainer, provider, business or range in Indiana we want to include you in our membership. We're putting together a package of options for connecting your business to interested members. Contact vp@isrpa.org for more information.

For those of you at home with bored kids, we have some great ideas from Indiana's First Lady Janet Holcomb: We've got a long road ahead of us, but we're all in this together. Eric and I have been telling Hoosiers how important it is to hunker down at home to keep your loved ones safe and healthy. It's more vital than ever to practice social distancing — working together to save Hoosier lives.

And it's also critical to get outside and stay physically — and mentally — healthy.

Here's the good news — Indiana's state parks are some of the best in the country, they're still open, and right now they are all currently waiving their entrance fees. Depending on the park, some of the areas will be closed to visitors, but you can still get outside for a hike. There's lots of space at our state parks...and plenty of room to get out while still social distancing.

I compiled a list of my favorite Indiana State Parks to give you a few ideas about how to stay active and safe during this time when we're hunkered down. Check them out on the websites: Brown County - the largest park in our state — that means there's lots of room for you to get outside. Falls of the Ohio (Clark County) - you can combine a little history with your outdoor adventure at this beautiful park, where Lewis and Clark launched their famous expedition. Indiana Dunes (Porter County) - you can always go for a hike in the most visited attraction in Indiana (Indiana Dunes State Park is adjacent to our newest national park). Fort Harrison (Marion County) - 1,700 acres of Hoosier history, beautiful scenery, and outdoor activities. McCormick's Creek (Owen County) - The original. Indiana's first state park is always worth visiting. Turkey Run (Parke County) - the beautiful canyons and gorges of Turkey Run are a great place for a hike. Clifty Falls (Jefferson County) - this beautiful park is right on the Ohio River and contains majestic waterfalls that change based on the season. Chain O'Lakes (Noble County) - home to nine connected lakes, Chain O'Lakes is a great place to get in touch with nature and explore Indiana's natural beauty.

Here's the catch — if you visit any of our state parks, you need to make sure you're following all social distancing guidelines, no excuses.

Thank you for reading — please continue to hunker down and stay healthy. We're all in this together. Stay Strong,

Janet Holcomb

Junior Olympics Postponed

Cancellation Likely
By Diane Rice, Director NE

Each year the Indiana qualifier for the Junior Olympics is held in early January. 2020 was no different. Participants from multiple states converged upon The X Count January 4th & 5th, all with hopes of receiving an invitation to the 2020 Junior Olympics in Colorado Springs in April. Several athletes left the match that weekend with either a state championship or an automatic qualifying score. Several more athletes would be required to wait the painful weeks to come for a first or second round invitation. The first round invitations did come but before the second round could be announced, the event had been postponed with no new date announced. We would like to recognize the following Indiana State Athletes & ISRPA members, their schools, and qualifying disciplines:

Eric Uetrecht - Leo High School – Air Rifle
Zach Hegbli – Leo High School – Air Rifle

Indiana Senator Blake Doriot, District 12, is Coach of the St. Joseph Valley Rifle and Pistol Association Junior Smallbore Team. Here, he is spending a day with Boy Scout Troop 325 – South Bend, giving a basic rifle class at WA-KE'-DE outdoor range in Bristol. It was a beautiful crisp day in November for a class on the range. SJVRPA has been sponsoring this event for about three years.
