President's Column

Sarah Beard did it again, during the 2019 Pan American Games in Lima, Peru on July 28th. She not only won the Gold Medal in the Women's 3-Position rifle match, she secured one Olympic quota, which means that the USA Women's Team is now guaranteed two spots on the 2020 Tokyo Olympics. Hopefully she can qualify to fill a spot herself. Congratulations Sarah!

On the list of newly Distinguished shooters are three Indiana Residents - Ryan Hyslop Columbus and Peter Yarbro Mishawaka - Distinguished Rifle and Bradley Parmer Columbus - Distinguished Pistol.

Congratulations Ryan, Peter and Bradley!

Your state association ISRPA was recently notified that it had been named the 2018 Outstanding State Association by the NRA! Along with the letter was a check for $1,000 and a note that we will be contacted later with more details on the Awards Ceremony to take place in January at the 2020 NRA Winter Board Meeting. The award was applied for in January 2019 and was selected over several other state associations.

This is a testament to much hard work done by many members in all sorts of shooting sports and legislative activities doing whatever it takes to further safety, competitions, and activities of interest not only to the members themselves but to the general public and especially the kids. Congratulations ISRPA!

Don't forget the Annual Meeting and Awards Banquet to be held November 2nd at the War Memorial Building in downtown Indy. See more details in this magazine.

Final Thoughts

This is the last article that I will address to you as your President. In November I will yield the office to the winner of the election at the Annual Meeting. I would like to take this opportunity to address some of the positive changes made by you, the Officers and Members of this Association:

- A completely new and I might add great web-site in addition to an up-to-date membership application sign-up program and member tracking system developed by Sue Mogle and Charlie Hiltunen
- A greatly improved and secure financial program, which will be initiated after the November election of Officers developed by Jeff Wehner
- An ambitious Junior Shooting Program to include an ongoing Junior Air Rifle Postal Match program developed by Paul Carlson, Bill Jordan and Steve Pardieck

- A Junior 3-Position Sporter Air Rifle Match (to be held in January 2020) developed by Brad Hartwick and Jamie McKown
- A Raffle Program used by ISRPA very successfully at the Booth at the NRA Annual Conventions in 2014 and 2019 developed by Steve Pardieck
- A most successful and rapidly growing Women of the ISRPA program developed by Deb Pavloff...It is amazing what the women have accomplished and still are accomplishing
- A Junior Shooting Program Endowment Account with MidwayUSA Foundation which was started in August 2017 with $0 and presently containing $70,000+ (ISRPA is allowed to withdraw 5% of the principle yearly to use for Junior Shooting Programs and so far, we have received a little over $5,000 in grants) originally proposed by Sue Mogle and Steve Pardieck
- In addition to that we have an inventory of slightly over $6,500 in fully paid for items from investments made to the Endowment Account that can be used to raise money for future projects
- Although not an accomplishment solely by ISRPA, Charlie Hiltunen is heavily involved with a consortium of NRA, The Governor's Office, Indiana National Guard and Indiana DNR whose purpose is to coordinate the NRA's plan to move all National Matches to Camp Atterbury and then to eventually make Camp Atterbury primer training and competitions center.

Charlie has done an amazing job of helping coordinate activities among the consortium members. Charlie is a perfect example of ISRPA Members just “doing things” to further the cause.

- And last but far from being the least (and actually an accomplishment from years ago) the Indiana Shooting Sports News magazine originally conceived and developed by Bill Thomas surely must be mentioned. Published quarterly (just as sure as the sun rises and sets) for more than 33 continuous years. Recently Bill has begun printing full color front and back pages. ISSN was recognized as NRA Magazine of the Year in 1998. I remember when Bill talked about using the actual “cut and paste” method to get the publication out. Of course, now everything is done on the computer, but non-the-less the magazine always gets published. Thanks Bill.

There is one more group that certainly deserves recognition, the ISRPA Executive Committee, consisting of Bill Dowden, Sue Mogle, Dan Pavloff, Bill Thomas and myself. Since ISRPA is no longer just a “good ole boys shooting club” it is a business and a business can’t handle day to day operations with only two meetings yearly. A perfect example is the MidwayUSA Endowment account. Had those investment opportunities not been taken advantage of immediately they would have been lost. It is necessary to “strike while the iron is hot” and matching monies are available for donations made without which a balance in excess of $70,000 (from $0 a little over 2 years ago) would not have been possible. This is just one example of using the Executive Committee for an advancement to ISRPA. Thanks Committee Members!

These are just some of ISRPA’s accomplishments thru the last 6 years. Now I’m sure there are many names that I have missed either through ignorance or my forgetfulness and to those I apologize. The fact is that we as a group of Officers and Members have accomplished some amazing feats and programs through the years. I have always tried to follow the advice of General George S. Patton when he said “Never tell people how to do things. Tell them what to do and they will surprise you with their ingenuity”.

I found that if I followed General Patton’s advice and did not worry about who got the credit...the accomplishments listed above would never have been possible.

* * *

In closing I would like to thank each and every one of you for your dedication and hard work that has helped to make the ISRPA such a great Association. And I would like to assure you that not only this last six years but also my first seven year stint as your President were some of the most memorable and rewarding times of my life and I am damn proud of that!

Thank you and God Bless,

Jerry Wehner,
President, ISRPA

Attendees at the CMP Rimfire Sporter Rifle National Championships at Camp Perry included: (L-R) Bill Thomas and grandson Grantham Schumann, Wayne Hall and grandson Logan Hall, Mike Smith and son Ashton. Logan, Mike and Ashton all were able to medal in the matches.

Hopefully these juniors are the next generation of competitors.

IYSSF COACHES' SUMMIT 2019

By Sue Mogle, Exec-VP

The First Indiana Youth Shooting Sports Coaches' Summit hosted by the Indiana Youth Shooting Sports Foundation took place Saturday September 21. Thank you to Jeff McClure, Program Manager for Midway USA Foundation who came to do a presentation on Midway Endowment Accounts for Youth Teams. IYSSF President Jim Dunn with Jeff McClure spoke about fund raising, raffles, matching, endowment accounts and how they work, the new Midway USA crowd funding, new program items, engagement, coach training, ROTC, Friends of NRA, and much more!

The program was well attended, with representatives from several Indiana Teams from all disciplines from across Indiana. There was a Board Member from the Civilian Marksmanship Program, who spoke about the possibility of building an Olympic Air Rifle Range in Indianapolis.

Thanks to Diane for all the work she did to raise awareness of the event and help fill the room.

IYSSF utilized the new membership and communication system to help organize and advertise the event. If you are involved with a Junior Shooting Team in Indiana and would like to be part of this organization or learn more, contact Sue Mogle at suemogle@yahoo.com or Derek Marshall at s3daoutreach@gmail.com. There is an NSCA (National Sporting Clays Association) Level 1 course being planned...please let us know if you are interested.

The next event will be planned for 2020. Look for news and information on the IYSSF website or IYSSF Newsletter!

IN MEMORY of DENNY REICHARD

1953-2019

It is with sadness I must report the passing of ISRPA Life member Denny Reichard. I had planned on writing an article about him, but after reading Massad Ayoob's tribute to him in the October 2019 issue of Guns Magazine I don't believe I could have done a better job. Below is a reprint of Mr. Ayoob's article courtesy of FMG Publications. Dan Pavloff, V-P Special Projects

HANDGUNS

Massad Ayoob Photos: Gail Pepin
When a Great Gun Guy Passes

In May of 2019, we lost Denny Reichard after a valiant battle with COPD. We'd been friends and colleagues for well over 30 years. Let me tell you about him.

On The Range : We first met at one of the early Bianchi Cups, where I was struck by the fact he was competing with a 6" Smith & Wesson .44 Magnum revolver and stout loads legendary power advocate Elmer Keith would have approved of. He was also vying against the rest of us with target handguns and the lightest-load ammo the rules would allow - and he did well, too. In the same sport, which soon became the NRA Action Pistol discipline, he won the Indiana State Championship multiple times with the same gun and loads.

The school I ran then was the Lethal Force Institute, and he went through it to the highest levels. At the loftiest part, LFI-IV, we had the students compete against one another on some of the toughest "combat shooting courses ever devised: the Hackathorn Standards, and the Impossibly High Standards course from the International Practical Shooting Confederation. Denny won both of those, the Hackathorn with a higher score than the top tally at a recent National Tactical Invitational. He did it with a matched pair of those Dirty Harry signature model .44 Magnums and stout handloads, dumping one when it ran empty and drawing the backup in lieu of reloading.

For much of his law-enforcement career he carried the pair in uniform, and at one point had his whole department doing the same. Those who couldn't qualify with the brutal recoil of the full power .44 Magnum easily did so with the optional .44 Special Winchester Silvertip. For those who made the grade with magnum loads, the issue round was Federal 44B, a 180-gr. JHP at 1,600 fps. No wonder Denny's nickname was "Rolling Thunder."

Denny and I taught together every year, first under the auspices of another great Indiana shooter, Jim Reinholt, and after Jim's passing, at Denny's own Sand Burr Gun Ranch, a combined shooting range and old school gun shop. In 1986 Denny became one of the very few people I certified to teach LFI deadly-force courses and likewise for my current school, Massad Ayoob Group. He was a great diagnostician for shooters who had problems, stern with the ones who had bad attitudes and eternally patient with those who were sincerely trying to overcome their issues.

On the Street: Denny served 36 years in a police department in Indiana – in a tough little town, which saw its share of action? I got to know several of the officers Denny worked with, from the chief to rookies he broke in. Whenever I could, I did the "busman's holiday" thing and rode with the local police to see how they did things. Riding with Denny, I learned why they revered him as a supercop.

With the public, "D.O." was a combination of Officer Friendly and Andy of Mayberry.

The local thugs, however, lived in fear of him. On those ride-alongs when he'd spot a local troublemaker, they didn't say " the pigs!" or raise a middle finger; they said respectfully — and sometimes querulously -- "Good morning, Mr. Reichard." He was a fearsome street fighter. I had the privilege of certifying him as an instructor with the Monadnock PR-24 side-handle baton, and he could make the instrument sing. He cherished a picture a young witness drew and sent to him after seeing him use the PR-24 on the street: The kid titled it "Ninja Cop". Reichard understood the question, "Is a cop a peace officer or a law enforcement officer?" and answered "Both!" When he lost a leg in a line-of-duty accident, he stayed on the job for another decade as a detective, hugely successful because, in part, informants knew they could trust him to be fair.

On the Bench: A man who would carry the S&W revolver or nothing at all, Denny went to all the S&W Armorer's classes under one of the all-time great instructors, John Contro, and became perhaps his star pupil. He earned a reputation as second to none for slicking up a Smith & Wesson revolver – for street or competition, different packages – it's what he did after he retired and really became famous for in the gun world.

I can attest to why. In 2010, I used a they Model 15 .38 Denny slicked up to win First Master at the East Coast IDPA Championships, coming in second only to Craig Buckland, the overall Stock Service Revolver Champion who later won the world title – this Model 15 had only the "duty action tune," not the super-light match version. Yes, his work was that good.

Denny's widow Cindy, daughter Ashley Gibbons and her husband Austin Gibbons will continue his legacy at Sand Burr Gun Ranch in Rochester, Indiana.

CHANGING THE FUTURE OF
YOUTH SHOOTING SPORTS

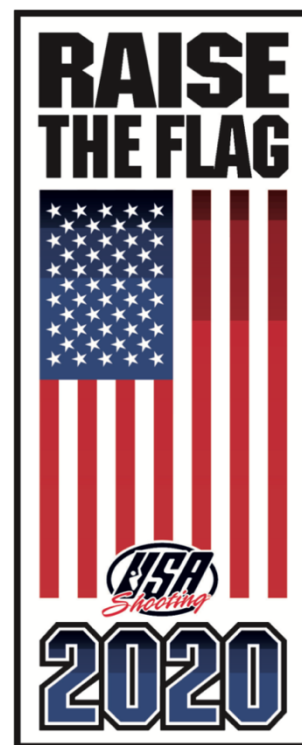

Raise The Flag 2020

MidwayUSA Foundation has partnered with USA Shooting to bring an alternate way for organizations to raise funds for their endowments. Apparel purchased on RaiseTheFlag.com/midway-usa-foundation-fundraising will benefit Team, Agency, or Donor Designated endowments by donating 20% of the order total. Each purchase will also support our U.S.A. shooters attending the Olympics in 2020.

USA Shooting only receives 15% of its funding from the U.S. Olympic Committee, which means 85% of the required financing comes from fundraisers. These fundraising dollars will send the Olympic athletes to various qualification competitions and ultimately the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo. Help fund our athletes and show your Olympic shooting pride by purchasing "Raise the Flag in 2020" apparel from USA Shooting. This fantastic opportunity supports your organization's endowment, supports the USA Shooting Olympic athletes, and gives you access to some great products. Additionally, all donations towards an endowment in this program will receive matching dollars based on the current Matching Program.

Remember to include your MidwayUSA Foundation Endowment ID in your checkout details to ensure proceeds benefit the youth shooting organization of your choice. If you don't know your Team Endowment ID, look it up at <https://www.midwayusafoundation.org/find-team-fund-team/>.

To find an Agency Endowment ID <https://www.midwayusafoundation.org/programs/agency-endowment-program/> or Donor Designated IDs <https://www.midwayusafoundation.org/programs/donor-designated-endowment-program/>.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

By Bill Dowden, Legislative Director

As a result of a few deranged people committing criminal acts of horrible violence with firearms, the media and the Democrat party are using the oft-quoted tactic espoused by former President Obama's Chief of Staff, "never let a crisis go to waste." Locally and nationally, many elected officials are responding by urging further infringement upon that inherent right to keep and bear arms.

As cities and towns around the country enact local ordinances restricting what they are encouraged to call "assault rifles," it is evident that Indiana State Senator Jim Toms was ahead of this "assault on individual rights" when he led the successful preemption fight to prohibit local governments regulating firearms. His success in passing legislation this year to strike out the term "assault rifle" or "assault weapon" when, in fact, the intent of the rule or regulation was referring to "machine gun" assures Hoosiers that their semi-automatic and/or magazine-fed rifle or shotgun will not be termed "assault weapon" regardless of its cosmetics.

With the pressure on the U. S. Congress now for more federal government restrictions on private possession and use of firearms, it is important for lawful gun owners in Indiana to contact their U.S. Representative and U. S. Senators Mike Braun and Todd Young to let them know of your opposition to more restrictions on law-abiding citizens, which would have no effect on criminal activity.

This year, 2019, Indiana will have municipal elections, such offices as Mayor, Council, etc. Make sure your candidates will not consider meddling with firearms regulations that are already covered by State law.

Next year, 2020, in addition to the Presidential election, Indiana will have elections for Governor, 25 State Senators, and 100 State Representatives. Now is the time to be getting acquainted with the men and women who will be running for election/re-election at that time. Information regarding the incumbents can be found on the website www.iga.in.gov and election and candidate information is available at www.sos.in.gov.

Although it might have been repugnant to the media and about 150 of the 193 members of the United Nations, it was reassuring to Hoosiers when President Trump spoke to the September 23rd opening session of the UN General Assembly about America's commitment to freedom. He repeated to the Assembly what Hoosiers have always known: "The United States is founded on the principle that our rights do not come from government. They come from God."

Women's Corner

By Dawn Hillyer, V-P Women of the ISRPA

The Women of the ISRPA (aka Indiana Girls with Guns) had a busy summer! It was so much fun planning and hosting our first Ladies Day at the Range, September 15 at the Atterbury Shooting Complex, Edinburgh. Thanks to our friends at Atterbury Shooting Complex, the ladies were able to enjoy a beautiful day of shooting, learning, shopping and winning at this state of the art facility. The $4.1 million facility is open to the public six days a week, featuring 66 lanes for rifle (50 and 100 yards) and pistol (7 - 25 yards), shotgun range, and Pro Shop with rentals available.

The Ladies' Day event was planned as an introduction to the many aspects of the shooting sports for women that are completely new to shooting sports, to women that have some experience but want to learn more and try out new venues. Ladies had an opportunity to learn basic safety and handling, then try out pistol, rifle and shotgun with the tutelage of some outstanding instructors. A Family-friendly event, we had a couple of mother – daughter teams take the field!

Instructors included Indiana's best! Tami Watson and Amanda Kalman presented sessions on Basic Safety and Handling, and Guy Relford presented two breakout sessions on Indiana Gun Laws. Guy also helped as the ladies tried their hand at shooting clays on the shotgun range along with Master Class shooter Brad Mendenhall and 3-Gun Junior Competitive Shooter, Beth Walker. From what I hear, this was a favorite among the ladies!

Indiana small businesses were also there! HidingHilda, Guns & Rosa Targets, Bell Armor, Flat Rock Flags along with several others were set up making Vendor Row a hit!

Raffle prizes included a shotgun, rifle and pistol along with several other items donated by vendors. Congratulations to all the winners!

Special thanks to Indiana Youth Shooting Sports Foundation (IYSSF) and MidwayUSA Foundation for donating both the shotgun and rifle to the raffle, along with a grant helping to provide lunch and T-shirts and Freedom Firearms in Fort Wayne for donating the pistol. Thanks to all the volunteers, instructors and helpers, that made our first Ladies' Day on the Range a huge success!

We look forward to the next one! Indiana Girls With Guns envisions three of these events across Indiana in 2020, including the Atterbury Range. We have many ideas to make next year even better! Look for announcements on the ISRPA website, Indiana Shooting Sports News magazine, and the ISRPA email newsletter. And make sure to follow our Facebook page – Indiana Girls with Guns!

Women's Corner - Spotlight

We'd also like to take this opportunity to spotlight Beth Walker and The DC Project! Beth is a senior in high school, a competitive 3-gun shooter (Sponsored by Ruger) and works with several different Conservative groups to further the focus on the Second Amendment and its importance to the preservation of Constitutional principles including being Indiana's Representative for The DC Project.

The D.C. Project is a nonpartisan initiative to reveal the real face of American gun owners: daughters, mothers, and sisters. 50 women from 50 states will gather in Washington, D.C. to meet with legislators to encourage an open dialogue about the values surrounding firearms and the 2nd Amendment. This event serves to educate officials about this often overlooked demographic and promote the diversity of gun owners.

On September 26th, Beth and the other women of the DC Project proudly stood with founder Dianna Mueller as she testified to the judiciary committee on the "assault-weapon ban" vowing to not comply. This group is #doingsomething.

To learn more about the DC Project and what you can do, follow them on @thedcproject.

Look for more on Beth Walker in next addition of this magazine and follow her on Facebook @3gunbeth.

ISRPA Course High Power State Championship Series 2019

By Sue Mogle, Exec-VP

The 2019 ISRPA Across the Course High Power State Championship Series concluded September 22-23 with the Course State Championship at Camp Atterbury. Congratulations to Match Winner and Indiana State Across the Course Champion Mike King, 781-30. Mike is the recipient of the Dan Ireland Trophy. Congratulations to Scott Schneider (Illinois), 780-28. Scott is the winner of the Moncrief Service Rifle Trophy. The ISRPA Course High Power perpetual trophies are awarded to the high scorers regardless of residence. State Champions must be Indiana residents. Indiana residents that are high scorer receive both awards.

Congratulations to Mark Richard, State High Master Champion; Ryan Hyslop, First Master and State Master Champion; Andrew Beaver, High Junior (Peter Faatz Award); Meghan Beaver, First Expert and State

Expert Champion, and Justin Harris, First SS/MK and State SS/Mk. Congratulations to all and good shooting! A huge Thank You to Phil McMillen and High Power VP Roger Copsey! Without all their hard work Course matches at Camp Atterbury would not be possible. Thanks to Grill Master Nathan Scott for an awesome cookout, and for mowing the berms for us. Thanks to all who helped with set up and take down.

Madeline Schnelle, granddaughter of David Schnelle competed in her first match at Camp Atterbury.

EIC Match Sunday: Congratulations to Match Winner Barry Cole (8 points) and Second place David Clark (6 points).

The series began with the 300 yard reduced course State Championship on September 14 hosted by Wildcat Valley Rifle & Pistol Club, Brookston. Congratulations to Match Winner Liam McKenna, 796-39 with a new Range Record! State Champion Alex Vitous, 791-33; 300 yard High Master State Champion Dave Schnelle, 780-24; Eric Becker, 774-21, 300 yard Master State Champion; Robert MacWilliams, 774-15 300 yard Expert State Champion, and Meghann Beaver, High Junior.

The 100 yard State Championship was shot at Fall Creek Valley Conservation Club on September 14. Congratulations to Match Winner and State 100 yard Champion Mark Richard, 781-27.

Aggregate Champion (100 – 300 – 600) went to Mark Richard, 2323-70. His was an outstanding performance across the full range of Across the Course High Power shooting in Indiana.
